

Permission form

If you wish to reproduce, reprint, copy or otherwise use any part of an International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) Foundation ('Foundation') publication or any of the Foundation's materials, please consider the following statements before submitting your request:

- The Foundation may on application grant permission to use parts of the publications and other materials which appear in the schedule to this form.
- Please allow the Foundation up to eight weeks to process a request, although the Foundation aims to complete the process within a shorter timeframe.

To apply for permission to use material from the Foundation's publications department or any of its websites, please complete the relevant sections of this form and send the completed form and any supporting material to permissions@ifrs.org.
