Andreas Barckow (Chair, International Accounting Standards Board (IASB))

10:45 Networking break

Panel discussion: Management Commentary – a stepping stone to further integration in reporting

In this session, our speakers will review the IASB’s Management Commentary project and discuss how – through the project - the IASB is laying the groundwork for future thinking on integration in reporting.

Moderator: Linda Mezon-Hutter (Vice-Chair, IASB)

Panellists: Nick Anderson (Member, IASB), Prof. Elbano de Nuccio (President, Consiglio Nazionale Dei Dottori Commercialisti E Degli Esperti Contabili (CNDCEC), Associate Professor of Accounting and Business Administration at LUM Giuseppe Degennaro University and IFRS Advisory Council Member), Charles Tilley OBE (Chair, Integrated Reporting and Connectivity Council)
Deep dive: IFRS S1 and the Integrated Reporting Framework
In this session, we will take a deep dive into the relationship between IFRS S1 and the Integrated Reporting Framework, looking at how the Framework can help companies as they prepare to adopt IFRS S1 for the first time.

The experts will discuss the practical resources available to help companies, such as the IFRS Foundation’s mapping tool which demonstrates how to apply the Integrated Reporting Framework with IFRS S1 and IFRS S2.

Moderator: Ndidi Nnoli-Edozien (Member, ISSB)
Panellists: Prof. Guler Aras (Chair, Integrated Reporting Association Turkey and YTU Center for Finance, Governance & Sustainability), Georg Lanfermann (President, DRSC/ASCG), Mark Vaessen (President of Accountancy Europe, Partner at KPMG)

12:40 Lunch and networking

Afternoon theme: Reinforcing value

Sustainability disclosures and integration in reporting: The regulatory views
In this session, our speakers will take a look at how regulators in different parts of the world are addressing the integration of sustainability disclosures with mandatory financial reporting requirements to help ensure information is connected and consistent.

Moderator: Jonathan Labrey (Chief Connectivity and Integrated Reporting Officer, IFRS Foundation)
Panellists: Vania Borgerth (Deputy Coordinator of International Relations at CBPS (The Brazilian Committee for Sustainability Pronouncements) and Board Member of IESBA (International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants)), Roberta Ravelli (Technical Support, Office of ISSB Vice-Chair, IFRS Foundation)

Deep dive: Integrated Reporting and Intangibles
Intangibles are represented in the Integrated Reporting Framework through the concept of multiple capitals as sources of value creation
As such, integrated reporting has become a tool where intangibles, especially those not recognised in the financial statements, can be disclosed.

Moderator: Nick Anderson (Member, IASB)
Panellists: Jean-Philippe, Desmartin (Head of Responsible Investment, Edmond de Rothschild AM, Co-Chair of CESG EFFAS, Chair of WICI Europe) Fiona Watson (Senior Director, Corporate Performance & Accountability, WBCSD & Member of the WBCSD Extended Leadership Group)

Panel discussion: The role of integrated thinking
In this session, panellists will focus on the role of integrated thinking. They will exchange views on how applying integrated thinking can change the internal dynamics within a company—breaking down silos, improving risk management and driving information through the business. They’ll also consider the role of integrated thinking within disclosure, and how it can contribute to an enhanced corporate reporting package.

Moderator: Tjeerd Krumpelman (Partner, Grant Thornton Impact House, Chair of IFRS Foundation Integrated Thinking & Strategy Group)
Panellists: Mary Adams (Co-Founder of: Insights7 Inc. and the Integrated Reporting U.S. Community) Leigh Roberts (Chief Executive, Integrated Reporting Committee (IRC) of South Africa)

15:40 Networking break
Panel discussion: The business and investor case for integrated reporting
What are the benefits of using the Integrated Reporting Framework alongside IFRS Standards? Panellists will discuss the value proposition for preparers, as well as the additional value an integrated report provides for investors using the information.

Moderator: Peitro Poletto (Chairman, AIAF (Associazione Italiana per l’Analisi Finanziaria))
Introductory Speech: Jesus Zaballos (President, EFFAS)
Panellists: Francesco Marconi (Partner, Andersen Italy)
