This paper has been prepared by the staff of the IFRS Foundation and the FASB for discussion at a public meeting of the FASB or IASB. It does not purport to represent the views of any individual members of either board. Comments on the application of US GAAP or IFRSs do not purport to set out acceptable or unacceptable application of U.S. GAAP or IFRSs. The FASB and the IASB report their decisions made at public meetings in FASB Action Alert or in IASB Update.

Introduction

- 1. This paper:
  - (a) Provides background on recent revenue project activities;
  - (b) Provides an overview of the papers for the October 2012 meeting; and
  - (c) Updates the redeliberations plan and timeline for the revenue project.

Background

- 2. The Boards published the revised exposure draft Revenue from Contracts with Customers in November 2011, with a comment period that ended on March 13, 2012.
- 3. In May 2012, the staff presented to the Boards a summary of the feedback from comments letters and a project plan for completing the redeliberations of the revenue project and finalizing a common revenue standard for IFRSs and US GAAP.
- 4. Thereafter, in July and September 2012, the Boards discussed and made tentative decisions on several topics that are summarized on the IASB and FASB websites.

The IASB is the independent standard-setting body of the IFRS Foundation, a not-for-profit corporation promoting the adoption of IFRSs. For more information visit www.ifrs.org

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), is the national standard-setter of the United States, responsible for establishing standards of financial accounting that govern the preparation of financial reports by nongovernmental entities.
