

IFRS[®] INTERPRETATIONS COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The Trustees of the IFRS[®] Foundation invite applications from suitable candidates to serve on the IFRS Interpretations Committee ('the Interpretations Committee') from July 2024. Three positions will be available.

All applicants will be comprehensively considered. However, based on the skills, experience and background of outgoing member(s) and the overall balance of the Interpretations Committee, the following attributes would be of specific interest:

- experience as a user of financial statements;
- experience as a preparer of financial statements; and
- presently working outside Europe.

The Interpretations Committee is the interpretative body of the International Accounting Standards Board. It consists of 14 voting members and a non-voting chair, Bruce Mackenzie. The role of the Interpretations Committee is to address questions about the application of IFRS Accounting Standards to support consistent application.

When considering candidates, Trustees will consider individuals who:

- have a high level of technical expertise;
- add to the diversity of the Interpretations Committee in terms of international business and market experience;
- have market experience in the practical application of IFRS Accounting Standards and analysis of financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards; and
- can serve in an individual capacity and demonstrate their independence.

Following interviews, which are expected to take place in March/April 2024, successful candidate(s) will be appointed to serve a term that will begin on 1 July 2024 and that will expire on 30 June 2027. The term may be renewed for a further three years. Members are expected to attend, in London, up to six two-day meetings each year. Membership is unpaid, but the IFRS Foundation meets members' reasonable travel and accommodation expenses incurred for Interpretations Committee business.

Closing date for applications: 28 February 2024.

Please refer to the relevant relevant website pages and the criteria and indicate interest by sending a cover letter and curriculum vitae by 28 February 2024 to: Ken Robinson, Chair of the Nominating Committee, c/o: Jill Robinson jrobinson@ifrs.org
